

C- --I'm singing.

C --We're singing.

C+--We're singing a song together.

B- ---Together, we're singing a song that has a point.

B --We're performing a song that has a point-- and I care about both the song and the message.

At B+ music become singer-driven rather than director-driven

---

B+--We're performing a song that has a point; I care about it and it's fun to do well.

A- ---We're performing a song because there's an audience to entertain.

A --We're performing a song because there's an audience to entertain who loves both me and the music.

A+--We're performing a song because there's an audience to entertain who loves both us and the music, and we are all loving life as we journey to another world!
